

I am against weakening Indiana's No call law by allowing "established business relationship" exemption phone calls. Also I do not give permission for use of any personal Identifiable Information collected at this site for any purpose other than tabulating results from comments concerning this action.